

FIVE KEY QUESTIONS THAT CAN CHANGE THE WORLD

25 Lesson Plans

“Where do I start?” is a cry often heard from teachers who wish to introduce media literacy to their classrooms. Five Key Questions that can Change the World is an innovative collection of 25 cornerstone lesson plans – five for each of CML’s Five Key Questions of media literacy for deconstruction. The lessons are scalable activities from kindergarten through high school, and include both analysis activities and creative production projects. These sample lessons correlate with national education standards in language arts and social studies and integrate well with health, math and the arts.

Also available in Spanish and Turkish. $14.95
